Lenten Season

Lenten Worship Season

The 2017 Lenten Season begins on Wednesday, March 1st and will unfold through Easter Sunday, on April 16th. This year our focus for worship will be on Our Identity in Jesus Christ as a result of the mighty acts of God through the Cross. Each week will acknowledge the formation of our identity and discipleship through what Jesus did on the cross for our salvation and the redemption of all creation. There will be some new liturgy offerings including a weekly children's bulletin to mark the 40 Days & 40 Nights to highlight the way God has always sought to love his created ones. We will also begin making regular use of the sanctuary video monitors and using some spiritual practices to enhance our worship services.

Tomorrow's Door

*I run as a child, seeing an open door, laughing, arms open to whatever waits,
wildly embracing this new day,
spreading wings, no fear, no question,
dancing in the rain, splashing in puddles,
jumping exuberantly into whatever lies beyond the door.*

*Grab my hand, Jesus!
We'll dance and sing!
Together, you and I,
We'll paint the sky with rainbows*

- Eleanor Cowles

// Listen! I am standing at the door, knocking; if you hear my voice and open the door, ..."

The structure of the manse is such that there is a wide space between the storm door and the front entry doors to the house. It is wide enough that a person could stand between the doors. In fact, many of our grandchildren have played between this space looking out through the glass of the storm door window and wanting to close the entry door. Our grandson Logan delights with glee, as he looks at you while trying to close the entry door, as if it is some kind of "peek a boo" game. He stands between what is outside and what is inside, much like many of us in the church.

"The In Between Time"

We are at an "in between" time in the life of our congregation. Between what we have been and what we are yet to be for the Lord in the region assigned to us. In many ways we are at the threshold of our future. We stand between the familiar of what we know, and exploring what is unknown. Are we excited about the new and letting go of the old or do we long for what was and hesitate to step forward toward what the Lord is calling us to next in our journey of faith?

Though we now think of a threshold as an opening or doorway, it was originally the lip of wood or stone at the bottom of a doorway that would keep grain from leaking out of a full storehouse. The word threshold came from the practices of threshing grain (a frequent expression of Jesus in sorting out the grain from the stalk) and the word literally meant the "thresh hold", as a place to store the grain separated from the stalks. So a threshold, doesn't just mark an entrance or an opening, but might be something you could stub your toe on if you do not cross it with a careful step. I know I've "stubbed my toe" on a few thresholds when I've tried to preserve something essential while trying to make progress forward.

Melissa Tidwell writes, "Imagine the church as a storehouse for the harvest of God's loving kindness. How do we act as a threshold for others then? Do we hoard our gifts, concerned there is not enough? Do we hide the delights within by holding tightly to what is perceived to be ours? Or are we willing to rejoice in the opportunity we have been given to offer nurture, bread for the journey, with the reassurance that there is enough grain, enough grace, and that life in Christ offers inexhaustible resources beyond measure?"

It is interesting to note the threshold on the storehouse would be built to allow the door to open outward, because you might not be able to open it inward because of the abundance of grain. Please note the church doors open outward, inviting us to enter the mission field for the Lord, even while preserving the goodness within. In fact, a threshold might be a good place to pause and offer prayers of gratitude for what has been harvested and preserved inside, but the labor in the fields must continue. "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few, pray for the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers." We are used to welcoming people in to the storehouse of the Lord, but we hesitate to walk out and bring in new sheaves to be threshed for the purpose of the Lord's harvest. It is important that we see Jesus provision not just inside the storehouse but look to where the Lord is at work outside to bring in the next harvest for Kingdom. Perhaps, we can embrace the view of the child in between the comfort of the inside and the excitement of looking outward to the possibilities.

Peace and Blessed Be,

Pastor Dennis

Fish Dinner and Stations of the Cross

On Friday, March 31st we will journey to S.S. Simon & Jude Parish to participate in a Fish Dinner and journey through the Stations of the Cross. The Stations of the Cross depict the journey that Jesus took from the garden of Gethsemane to the cross, the idea being that the pilgrim, or the person visiting each station, joins Christ on the journey through contemplation. We will be uniting with not only the members of Unity and S.S. Simon & Jude, but are extending the invitation to the members of Mt. Pisgah and Covenant Community Presbyterian Church. We will carpool or meet at S.S. & Jude Fellowship Hall (In the School Building) at 6:00 p.m. to enjoy the Fish Dinner (A variety of options, including baked or fried, will be available). We will then gather in the sanctuary for the Service of the Stations of the Cross led by Father Jay Donahue and Pastor Dennis, using a variety of song and scripture.

Please register by going to the website Unitypresbyterian.org to reserve your participation so we can inform the meal preparers for how many may come. PLEASE REGISTER BY THURSDAY, MARCH 23RD AS WE NEED A TO PROVIDE S.S. & JUDE WITH A HEAD COUNT BY THE 24TH.

Pittsburgh Music Academy Coming to Unity Presbyterian Church

We are pleased to announce that the Pittsburgh Music Academy has taken up permanent residence in our facilities. This will not only provide a new source of revenue for our facility, but also an influx of developing musicians and their families who will experience the hospitality of our congregation. We are already looking forward to new recital opportunities and the music enhancement possibilities. The community will continue to discover what a wonderful venue our facility offers, how our music program is expanding, and how important faith and music are to the congregation. Please welcome the students and teachers of the Pittsburgh Music Academy as you see them coming and moving throughout the facility in the weeks ahead.

Don't miss the next recital in Unity Presbyterian Church's exceptional concert series! The talented Jami Bale, who has mastered both the flute and violin, will be joining us on Friday, March 10th, at 12:30pm in the Unity Sanctuary.

Jami has extensive musical resume, belonging both to the Pittsburgh Opera Orchestra and the Wheeling Symphony of West Virginia. Originally a native of Kansas, she still has ties to her mid-western roots, and often performs at the Sunflower Music Festival of Topeka. Impressively, Jami holds a Bachelor's and two Masters' Degrees from the Conservatory at the University of Missouri – Kansas City, and an Artist's Diploma from Duquesne University. She is currently a faculty member at the Lydia Music Center, a local music school in McCandless.

Jami will be accompanied by our Music Director, Sandy Rubright, and together they will perform works by Bach, Kreisler, Doppler and Mozart.

Why Per Capita???

Like many Presbyterians, you may have wondered, "Exactly what does per capita do?"

Per capita is the amount of support, per member, that our congregation remits to our Presbytery that is then sent onto our Synod and the General Assembly. This money is part of the glue that holds Presbyterians together. It is the money that enables us to work with other Presbyterian churches in our Presbytery and across the country. It is also money that allows us to work with other churches to further the mission of Jesus Christ around the world.

How important is per capita? Here are some examples:

- Your per capita pays for the General Assembly meeting every two years where Presbyterians gather together to worship and discern the mind of Christ for the church.
- In many places in our world, it is difficult to "do mission" except by working ecumenically with other churches. Your per capita helps to pay for meetings of Presbyterians with people of other Christian churches, allowing us to maintain those ties for mission.
- Your per capita pays for producing the Book of Order and The Book of Confessions, including in Spanish, Korean, and Braille.
- Your per capita helps to fund the Presbyterian Historical Society – preserving and sharing the Presbyterian experience.
- Your per capita funds the preparation, administration, and grading of standard ordination examinations for seminary students.
- Your per capita pays for annual training events for presbytery executives, stated clerks, and others who help lead our work and mission.
- Your per capita pays for the travel expenses of the Moderator and Vice Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) as they make their way across the church to share with and listen to folks like you about the exciting things God is doing in our midst.

We do not believe in being lone rangers in the PC(USA). We need each other as we work together to share the good news of Jesus Christ. As we benefit from the gifts, skills, vision, and ministry of each other in this place, so, too, do we benefit from an even wider array of gifts and ministry of our Presbyterian brothers and sisters across the church. Your per capita pays for the programs, training, and resources that help us work together and discern the mind of Christ for the PC(USA).

This year's capita request is $35 per member. Thank you to all of you who have already paid your share. By contributing your portion of per capita, you have freed up dollars in our regular budget for the work of our congregation in this community.

Stewardship Snapshot

From the annual meeting and previous financial reports over the last year, we should all understand that for our new church to be successful, we must meet our financial goals. The following table summarizes envelope giving for the first four weeks of the year.

Giving has picked up during the first two weeks of February, but dropped off significantly for the third week. The income budget for envelope giving represents a value based upon past giving. It does not represent all of the funds needed to pay our operating expenses. The goal is for envelope giving to be able to cover all of our operating expenses. We have a long way to go.

March / Lent Hymns for Focus and Reflection

Each monthly hymnody article is based on the offerings of the new Presbyterian Hymnal called "Glory to God". Obviously, we have been singing many hymns from the new book over the past few months, due to our inserts in the bulletins. If you take advantage of the info I am providing and the clips cited, you will be more well-rounded and more prepared as we embark upon the new words. When we hear words, we pray them once but when we sing the words, we pray them twice and it lives in your heart. May you be blessed richly by the words of these contemporary authors of our hymnody from "Glory to God!"

March 5

The hymn: "Today We are Called to Be Disciples" text was created to be part of the 1986 Stewardship campaign of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). Much of the strength of this text is from the poetic use of words that helps to describe the many images that Jesus portrays as being a disciple. The quotes come from Luke, Isaiah, Matthew, Micah, Amos and Genesis! The tune "KINGSFOLD" is one that we are very familiar with from other seasons in the church year. We oft times will sing this tune with "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say". Enjoy this clip of a hammered dulcimer playing the tune KINGSFOLD! <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CgVbpitlVhw>

March 12

The hymn, "Take Us to the Mountain" is another familiar melody set to words that help us to recall the experience that Peter, James and John had as Christ reached the mountain top for the Transfiguration. This hymn reminds me of the power and glory of Jesus and how amazing it would be to see Him in dazzling white, arrayed in light.....especially through times of difficulty. Beloved, we are God's Children Now....it does not yet appear what we shall be but we know that when He comes, we will be like Him...forever, we are God's Children.....and He is God's beloved Son! The familiar tune UNSER HERRSCHER is one setting of Open Now the Gates of Beauty. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HDBlmsDKI30>

March 19

The Welsh tune of 1784 was harmonized by Ralph Vaughan Williams in 1906. "Go My Children with My Blessing" is a beautiful benediction hymn; one perfect for singing to your grandchildren as they go to sleep and a perfect hymn to learn to play for the grandchildren. The author of this text is the same author as last week: Jaroslav J. Vajda. He has written many leading hymns since the 70's. These words were set in 1983! He placed the words of the hymn into the mouth of the blessing triune God dismissing the congregation after worship. The tune, AR HYD Y NOS, is gentle and soothing and usually is set to texts associated with evening. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wjM18fEzD60> This tempo is too fast; however is still useful.

March 26

As we review the story of "Doubting Thomas" and our individual selves, "We Walk by Faith and Not By Sight" rings loud and clear. The words to this hymn are powerful and serve as a model for the ongoing mission of the church and for the faith journey of each of us as believers. This tune is different from most, because we usually repeat at least 2 lines in a hymn with the same notes. This music is considered "through-composed" meaning its melody is constantly different and changing. Listen to this clip so the singing is more of a joy for you. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IUp3PERsMwI>
